Center for Families and Agenda for Children
Community Playgroups

What are Cambridge Community Playgroups?
Community Playgroups are run by both the Center for Families and the Agenda for Children. Playgroups are fun, FREE groups for parents and caregivers from Cambridge and their children ages 15 months--5 years old. There are two Tiny Tot Community Playgroups that are for children ages 15 months—23 months and their caregivers and four Community Playgroups for children ages 2 years old—5 years old and their caregivers.

When and where do they meet?
Each of the 5 Community Playgroups playgroup run in 8-sessions series, three times per year (fall, winter, spring). Groups do not meet on days the Cambridge Public Schools are closed. Playgroups meet in the morning from 10:00am—11:30am. Please note, there are no Community Playgroups in the summer.

How do I sign up?
Fall 2016 Community Playgroup registration will begin in September of 2016. Forms will be available on the Center for Families website (www.cambridgema.gov/dhsp/cff). You can pick a form up at the Center for Families (70 Rindge Ave.) or from Priscila de Calvache at the Agenda for Children (119 Windsor Street, basement). You can also request the forms by emailing Cynthia at cwoodward@cambridgema.gov.

Cambridge Community Playgroups is a project of the Center for Families and Agenda for Children. Cambridge Community Playgroups is supported by funding from the City of Cambridge, the Children's Trust and the Massachusetts Department of Early Education and Care.