The ECNCD Study Committee continues meeting virtually via Zoom, usually with 15-30 members of the public in attendance. The meetings are also broadcast on Cityview-22. On June 16 the committee discussed the modifications to the goal and secondary goal statements and briefly went over jurisdiction if a district would be formed. Staff then gave a presentation on Cambridge Street as the commercial corridor and explained that if included in the final boundary, Cambridge Street should have specific design criteria and jurisdiction related to storefronts and signage. The Cambridge Street discussion will continue at the next hearing. Presentation slides and a recording of the meeting can be found on our website under the 'Districts & Historic Properties' and East Cambridge NCD Study tabs.

An additional meeting is tentatively scheduled for July 7. Staff will begin drafting the preliminary report for consideration by the committee over the summer and presentation to the Commission in the Fall.

6. Historic Site Markers.

- CDD has requested a marker for Broadway Common (Sennott Park).
- CPA funded project to replace deteriorated African American markers.
- MassDOT to relocate restored Sir Richard's Landing Tercentenary marker from Mt. Auburn Street to a site near the Cambridge Boat Club.

7. City portrait collection. Michael Kenney is preparing biographies and wall labels for the photo portraits in the Ackerman Room. Portraits are currently stored off-site during construction.

8. Cambridge Women's History Project (Sarah Burks). Woman Suffrage research ongoing. Sarah continues to refine her Cambridge Women's Suffrage Timeline.

9. Cambridge Black History Project (aka Black Trailblazers, formerly African American History Project; Leslie Brunetta, Melvin Downes, Chandra Harrington, Diahanne Lucas, Frank Lucas, Paula Paris, Kit Rawlins, Jim Spencer, Karen Ambush Thande)

- Jim Spencer has contributed several stories for History Cambridge's Did you know? series in Cambridge Day: Remembering Cambridge's Black veterans - Cambridge Day; A story of enslavement; a Juneteenth reflection - Cambridge Day; and Brother Blue was Cambridge's official storyteller - Cambridge Day. Many more to come.
- Trailblazer bookmarks, series II: complete: Olive Benson (beauty entrepreneur); Johnny Hodges (saxophonist extraordinaire); Dr. June Jackson (public health advisor); and Barbara Ward Armstrong (musician, dancer, singer; creator of life-sized "soft sculptures" of Africans and Black Americans). In process: Kittie Knox (competitive bicyclist); Gus Solomons Jr (dancer and choreographer); Cheryl Townsend Gilkes (Colby College professor of African American studies; assistant pastor, Union Baptist Church; special focus on Black women in the church); and Calvin Burnett (eclectic artist and arts educator). To be published in September 2021.
- New Black History Project website: Numerous images from CHC, including Union Baptist (before siding!), St Bartholomew's, St Paul AME, City Hall, Public Library. Researching images for overview of Black history in Cambridge.

10. Survey of Architectural History in Cambridge (Eric Hill). MHC Form B survey forms:

31 Madison Street (1927), for inclusion in Gray Gardens NR District.

11. Historic American Landscape Survey (HALS). Allison Crosbie's submission on the former Harvard Botanic Garden at Linnaean and Garden streets won first prize in this year's national competition (following her second prize last year for her Larchwood streetscape report).

12. The 19th Amendment commemoration project. The winning project proposal was "The Future to be Rewritten" by Azra Aksamija: <https://www.cambridgema.gov/Departments/citymanagersoffice/100years/nineteenthamentcentennialcommittee/azraaksamija>, but the designer selection was cancelled due to concerns about minority representation. This project will require a Certificate of Appropriateness for its proposed location on the Common. No developments.

13. Cambridge Advisory Committee on City Art, Memorials and Markers (CACCAMM) (CS and SB). This ten-member committee appointed by the City Manager met on January 13 to begin a review of public monuments, memorials, and markers throughout Cambridge “to determine whether any of these commemorate those who were linked to the slave trade or engaged in other similarly shameful acts, (and) to determine which individuals - particularly women, people of color, and those from other historically marginalized communities - should be newly recognized.” CHC staff created a web page for the committee and are managing meetings as well as conducting an inventory of existing memorials and markers. The final meeting in June discussed enhancement or removal of certain markers and/or monuments, using George Washington as a case study.
14. Seeing the World (KR). Working with two young women from the Cambridge Equity Collaborative who are planning a live self-guided scavenger hunt to approximately 25 sites in East Cambridge in May 2021, for Kennedy-Longfellow School families. We will choose 10 to 12 sites and devise a variety of tasks that will teach the families to see their world in new ways (geography, map-reading, architecture, then and now photos). Also involved are the school, East Cambridge Business Association, and other young people. Ongoing.

XIV. Coming Events.

1. None scheduled.

XV. Budgets, Personnel, and Facilities.

1. The proposed FY2022 CHC budget at $831,680 is essentially level-funded from last year except for a 3.0% cost-of-living increase. Our request to make Meta Partenheimer’s position as Digital Project Archivist permanent has been postponed again until FY2023; she is currently funded by a two-year CPA appropriation that supports the C-DASH project that we will seek to have renewed. The City Council’s Budget Committee approved the budget on May 18th without comment.
2. Brittany Fox, our most recent Simmons archives intern, who worked with extraordinary dedication throughout the pandemic and who left on April 30 to take a position at Abt Associates, has returned for two hours a week.
