Women and Words! is a community discussion group that meets once a quarter to address a different feminist topic or idea. Local speakers are invited to present and facilitate the discussion.

Women-Powered Transportation: Women Getting Around

Thursday, June 5, 2014 • 7pm
City Hall Annex, 344 Broadway, Cambridge

The number of female bicyclists increased by 1.3 million in 2012 and women are now the driving force in the bicycle market.

(League of American Cyclists, 8/2013)

29.5% of Cambridge residents bike or walk to work. This is the highest in the nation.

(2006-2010 American Community Survey)

The EZ Ride Shuttle, a shuttle bus for commuters and the public managed by the Charles River TMA, carried 514,397 passengers in 2012.

Jennifer Lawrence, Sustainability Planner, City of Cambridge will discuss how women are changing the face of sustainable transportation in Cambridge and the nation. Open to those already committed to cycling, walking, carpooling and public transit and those curious to find out more.
