Reviewed and edited Brittany's work with Rent Control Collection, Cambridge Ephemera Collection, and social media (For details on these projects, see Brittany's separate report below.) Sent deeds of gifts for items donated to the archives and handed off new items to Brittany to incorporate into collection. Rehoused/refoldered various items in flat files, rearranged shelving to accommodate bound items from the Cambridge Ephemera Collection and reviewed and uploaded scans of panoramas conserved by NEDCC.
- 5. Archives assistant Brittany Fox processed the following collections:

Rent Control Collection

- Conducted extensive research on historical background of rent control in Cambridge, and met repeatedly with Pat Cantor, former co-General Counsel, and Vali Buland, Law Department employee and former General Counsel, to discuss background context of how the records were created, what purposes they served, and how they were used during their active lifecycles. Consulted Rent Control Research files and gathered available resources.
- Developed and wrote a finding aid to reflect the physical arrangement of the collection and to provide historical context. The finding aid also addresses access restrictions due to personal privacy concerns
- Physically processed collection. Activities included re-foldering, rearranging, reboxing, and labeling. Other activities included weeding documents to remove duplicates and making preservation copies of records on volatile materials such as newsprint. Performed non-invasive preservation measures on damaged docket ledger books. Custom-made protective wrappers now extend usability of items by ensuring their structural stability.

Alice Darling Secretarial Services Inc. Ephemera:

 Wrote blog post about availability of collection to entice researchers and future use; updated finding aid and blog post.

CHC Objects Collection:

- Accessioned 11 new items to collection. Updated finding aid to reflect additions
- Conducted preservation actions and preventative measures on jeopardized items at high risk of information loss or diminishment of structural integrity.
- Physically reorganized a few boxes to provide unused space for future growth of collection.

Cambridge Ephemera Collection:

- Researched and created new Historical Note on collection background
- Updated existing finding aid to adhere to standard format.

CHC Objects Collection:

- Accessioned about 50 new items. Updated finding aid to reflect additions
- Performed non-invasive preservation measures to extend usability of items. Includes protective tissue barriers to diminish rot transfer, off-gassing, moisture, and other deteriorating agents; wrappers to add structural supports to damaged books. Added labels to each item to ensure identification

Conducted a physical assessment of collection and evaluated the benefits of moving bound books to shelves. Calculated space measurements required for storage changes Current working document of possible objects to add to finding aid.

- 8. Cambridge Women's' History Project (Sarah Burks). Woman Suffrage research underway in anticipation of the centennial of 19th Amendment in 2020. City staff are meeting to discuss the nature and location of a suffrage memorial. Sarah continues to refine her Cambridge Women's Suffrage Timeline.
- 9. PreservationMass (Sarah Burks). No developments.
- 11. Light Cambridge (Sarah Burks). We sent a report to the City Manager outlining measures to establish a Light Cambridge advisory committee that could carry out such a program. Updated the Manager on 9/13/17. No developments.
- 12. African American History Project (Kit Rawlins). In FY2016, the City Council appropriated funds for expansion of the African American Heritage Trail. Chandra Harrington volunteered to help organize this project, which has CPA funding to replace five old deteriorated markers and install five new ones in 2019. A new Black History Group, comprising around a dozen knowledgeable volunteers, has emerged to work on this and other projects. The new markers will focus on sites as well as individuals, including the Cambridge Community Center on Callender Street; the North Cambridge Community Church on Walden Street and its pastor, Rev. Samuel Weems; Lewisville, off Garden Street; The Dunbar Club on Franklin Street; and the Margaret Fuller Neighborhood House on Cherry Street.

Cambridge Black Trailblazers bookmarks released, first in a series. Packets of seven bookmarks were given to librarians in Cambridge elementary schools, who will share with young readers. The bookmarks, also available at Cambridge public libraries, are the work of the Black History Project, a small group of volunteers (including Chandra Harrington and Paula Paris). The first batch celebrates seven trailblazers with strong ties to Cambridge: Roy Allen, one of television's first Black stage managers; Joyce London Alexander, first Black U.S. Magistrate Judge; Charles LeRoy Gittens, first Black Secret Service agent; Gertrude Wright Morgan, a founder of the Niagara Movement and NAACP; Henry F. Owens, founder of Owens Moving Company; Dr. Elizabeth Rawlins, educator and advocate for students of color; and Chef Leon West, member of the African American Chef's Hall of Fame. At least twenty more bookmarks are planned. For more information, visit cambridgeblacktrailblazers.com. These seven Trailblazers are celebrated on pole banners in Central Square and in the February 24th issue of Cambridge Day (www.cambridgeday.com).

13. Survey of Architectural History in Cambridge (Eric Hill).

Updated and added to existing survey forms in Old Cambridge documenting major alterations and post-1970 construction. Continued windshield survey of Cambridgeport, Agassiz, and Mid Cambridge for the same purpose.

- 14. Affordable Housing Overlay. Refiled as before; still retains CHC jurisdiction.
- 15. Historic American Landscape Survey (HALS). Allison Crosbie's submission for the Larchwood Streetscape, to be archived through the National Park Service at the Library of Congress, won second prize in a national competition. She is currently writing a report for HALS on the former Harvard Botanic Garden at Linnaean and Garden streets.
- 16. Slavery in Cambridge. A graduate student in Northeastern University's Public Historic Program, Grace Woodward, researched the history of slavery pursuant to a City Council Order asking for information regarding streets named for slaveholders.
- 17. The 19th Amendment commemoration project. The Nineteenth Amendment Public Art Selection Committee (Sarah Burks and Allison Crosbie, members) met on Sept. 3. The winning project proposal was "The Future to be Rewritten" by Azra Aksamija: https://www.cambridgema.gov/Departments/citymanagersoffice/100years/nineteen-thamendmentcentennialcommittee/azraaksamija. This project will require a Certificate of Appropriateness for its proposed location on the Common.

XIV. Coming Events.

1. None scheduled.

XV. Budgets, Personnel, and Facilities.

- 1. The FY2021 CHC budget request at $789,105 is essentially level-funded from last year except for a 2.5% cost-of-living increase. Our request to make Meta Partenheimer's position as Digital Project Archivist permanent was postponed until April 2021; she is currently funded by a two-year CPA appropriation that supports the C-DASH project.
- 2. The Commission's request for FY21 CPA funding includes $65,000 for continuation of the C-DASH project. The CPA Committee will decide on this request at its meeting on September 9.
