

Center for Families Google Group

What is a Google Group?

A Google Group is an email messaging group. You can communicate with members of the group by sending a message to one e-mail address. You will also receive messages from other members. All messages are approved prior to sending out. If you could like to post a message to our Google Group, please email Cynthia at cwoodward@cambridgema.gov.

What are the purposes of the Center for Families Google Group?

- Connect Cambridge parents, childcare providers, and other family service providers with each other
- Remind families of upcoming programs
- Share information about parenting
- Let each other know about events in the area for families
- Share other helpful information about raising and caring for children in Cambridge

Why should I join?

- Receive the Center for Families newsletter as soon as it is available
- Get reminders about Center for Families events & workshops
- Receive information
- Connect to others in the community

Who can join?

If you care for at least one child who is 8 years or younger living in Cambridge, you are welcome to join the Google Group. To join, please e-mail Cynthia at cwoodward@cambridgema.gov.

Who can send a message to the Google Group?

If you have information regarding a free, family-friendly event for Cambridge families and would like to send it to the Center for Families Google Group, please contact Cynthia at cwoodward@cambridgema.gov. All messages must be pre-approved before given permission to post. Remember, the Google Group is not for selling items or advertising jobs.
