

Disability Reframed: A Community Film Series
presents a FREE screening of:

Cambridge Citywide Senior Center

806 Massachusetts Ave, Central Square, Cambridge

Directed by Steven Sawalich, this 2007 drama tells the true story of Richard Pimentel, a brilliant public speaker whose hearing disability attained in the Vietnam War drove him to become an activist for the Americans with Disabilities Act. This screening will be followed by a lively moderated audience discussion. Free light refreshments!

This is a scent-free event. Out of consideration for people with environmental illness and/or multiple chemical sensitivity, please refrain from using perfume or other scented products. For sign language interpreters or other accommodations, please contact the Cambridge Commission for Persons with Disabilities by July 12 at 617-349-4692 (voice) or 617-492-0235 (TTY) or e-mail: ccpd@cambridgema.gov.
