

Longfellow Neighborhood Council Winter Retreat/Ski Trip 2017

Stump Sprouts in Hawley MA

A funny name, but a great little lodge in the Berkshires!

February 10th -12th 2017

COST

Adults: $200.34

Youths (Ages 11-16) $160.91

Children (Ages 3-10) $ 100.17

3 & Under $ 40.07

Cost includes: 2 nights lodging (Friday night and Saturday night), and six meals (Friday night dinner, 3 meals on Saturday, breakfast and lunch on Sunday) and access to all the cross country ski trails.

Ski or snow shoe rental is extra.

50% deposit due by Sunday, 2016 Registrations will not be accepted without deposit. Deposits are also non-refundable. Space is limited so reserve early! Please make checks payable to George Bossarte, 4 Antrim Street, Cambridge, 02139. Ph. 617876 0390

Accommodations will be in the Guest Lodge. Guests are required to bring their own linens or sleeping bags. All rooms have double beds, some with single or bunks beds in same room.

Beautiful scenic views, recreation hall & wood fired sauna. Ski trails are right out the door.

Check out the "Stump Sprouts" in Hawley, Ma website for more info.

If you would like to join us for meals, skiing, and socializing, but would not wish to sleep in the Guest Lodge (or there are no rooms left), check out the various inns and hotels in the area...

Meal Details

All meals are homemade, but there is no set menu.

Menus feature a lot of fruits and vegetables with many items home grown or locally grown. Meal options typically include meat entrees and vegetarian options.

Accommodations can be made for common situations such as gluten or dairy allergies with prior notice. Meals are served buffet style at set times.

Great Food!

Stump Sprouts is high in the Berkshires. They talk about having a lot of snow into March. For more information contact: George Bossarte, Ski Trip Coordinator 4 Antrim Street Cambridge, MA 02139 Ph. 617 876 0390