Cambridge Public Library Book Donation Policy

Thank you for thinking of the Cambridge Public Library and for your generosity as you look to give away books from your personal collection.

We are able to accept hardcover books in excellent condition that are currently on the Boston Globe or New York Times bestseller lists, and that currently have holds for Cambridge patrons. You may bring these items to any Cambridge Public Library location. There is a cost associated in processing all additions to the collection, so we must limit what we accept.

We cannot provide receipts, nor can we return any donated item.
