EVENTS at the CAMBRIDGE PUBLIC LIBRARY

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Fifty Years Since MLK

Monday, February 26, 6:30 PM
Main Library, Lecture Hall

The Cambridge Public Library welcomes acclaimed educators Brandon M. Terry, Tommie Shelby, Elizabeth Hinton, and Cornel West for a panel discussion on the legacy of Martin Luther King, Jr. This discussion will feature Fifty Years Since MLK, the latest Boston Review issue, edited by Brandon M. Terry; and To Shape a New World: Essays on the Political Philosophy of Martin Luther King, Jr. from Harvard University Press, edited by Tommie Shelby and Brandon M. Terry. Co-sponsored with Harvard Bookstore and Boston Review. Doors open at 6:00 PM.

Jonathan Lerner in Conversation with Professor Judith Smith

Thursday, February 15, 6:30 PM
Main Library, Lecture Hall

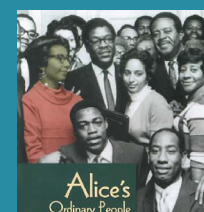

Join author and former member of The Weather Underground, Jonathan Lerner, in conversation with Professor Judith Smith. They will discuss his latest book, Swords in the Hands of Children: Reflections of an American Revolutionary, where Lerner recounts a wild and utterly American journey from idealism to destruction and beyond.

Researching the History of Your Cambridge House

Wednesday, February 7, 6:00 PM
Main Library, Community Room
Thursday, February 8, 3:00 PM
Main Library, Beech Room

This hour-long, hands-on workshop will guide you through a variety of online resources that will help you research your home. Discover when your building was built and by whom. Find out who lived in your house and how your neighborhood has changed. Registration is mandatory. To register, contact Alyssa Pacy at apacy@cambridgema.gov or 617-349-7757.

Screening of Craig Dudnick's Alice's Ordinary People

Tuesday, February 27, 6:00 PM
Main Library, Lecture Hall

Alice's Ordinary People chronicles the life, travails and triumphs of Alice Tregay, a Chicago-based leader of the civil rights movement. Ms. Tregay's activism under the banner of the SCLS's Operation Bread Basket paved the way for the election of Mayor Harold Washington, the first African American elected Mayor of Chicago. Event will include opening remarks by Mayor McGovern and will be followed by a panel discussion.

In partnership with the Office of Mayor Marc McGovern. This is part of the Our Path Forward series presented by the Library to affirm its commitment to public discourse and democracy.

Circle Up!

Wednesday, February 28, 6:30 PM
Main Library, Lecture Hall

Youth Underground is an ensemble that creates and performs original theater that investigates social issues relevant to young people. The pieces are created through a series of interviews with the community. Last year, the interviews centered around the Achievement Gap, and Circle Up! was born. See and hear what is going on in urban high schools by listening to the voices of real students, and the educators who work with them, as they describe the effects of opportunity gaps and implicit bias on their everyday lives. Sponsored by the Friends of the Cambridge Public Library.

Tavi Gevinson

Monday, February 12, 6:30 PM
Main Library, Lecture Hall

The Cambridge Public Library welcomes editor-in-chief and founder of Rookie, Tavi Gevinson, for a discussion of her latest book, Rookie on Love. Co-sponsored with Harvard Bookstore.

All Library locations will be closed Monday, February 19 in observance of Presidents' Day.
