

Public Workshop

AGENDA

Cambridge Climate Change Vulnerability Assessment

March 17, 2015. 6:00 – 8:30 pm

Kirsch Auditorium, Stata Center, MIT

32 Vassar Street

Meeting Goals:

- Provide an overview of the Cambridge Climate Change Vulnerability Assessment's findings on key vulnerabilities and priority planning areas.
- Provide participants a chance to think about and discuss the project results.
- Seek input from participants on ideas for key next steps.

5:45pm Registration

6:00 Welcome, Introductions & Project Overview

Welcome – City Manager Rich Rossi, City of Cambridge

Introductions and overview of meeting – Ona Ferguson, Consensus Building Institute

6:15 Project Overview

Description of the climate change vulnerability assessment project undertaken over the last two years, what was done, who was involved, and next steps.

6:30 Presentation on Vulnerability Results & Priority Planning Areas

Presentation on results from this effort, highlighting vulnerabilities and priority areas within Cambridge.

7:15 Discussion About Draft Project Results

Discussion of the results of the vulnerability assessment ranking and ideas for what ought to be done next to begin addressing these challenges.

8:15 Report Outs & Next Steps

8:30 Adjourn