Transit Advisory Committee Meeting

November 6, 2013 from 5:30 PM – 7:30 PM

4th Floor Atrium space at 50 Church Street in Harvard Square
(directly above The Sinclair & Fire + Ice)

Final Agenda

- 5:30 PM Review of notes from last committee meeting
Handout: Notes from the September 11 committee meeting.
- 5:40 PM Presentation: Triple Bottom Line Sustainability, what does that mean?
Susanne Rasmussen, Director, Environmental & Transportation Planning Division
As part of the transit strategic planning process, the benefits of transit and rationale for why we need to focus on transit is placed within the triple bottom line sustainability context (Economic, Environmental, Livability). Susanne will briefly present how all of the work within the Community Development Department is being considered in this triple bottom line sustainability context.
- 5:50 PM Update on the Transit Strategic Planning Process.
Jeff will review the timeline for the strategic planning process, review where we have come in the process, and where we are going. The committee schedule for the next year will be presented.
- 6:00 PM Presentation and discussion on the 7 draft Goals.
We have synthesized 7 draft goals out of the input sessions from the committee and internal city working group. We would like to discuss these with the committee.
- 6:45 PM Questions/ discussion on current city planning activities regarding transit.
Though the transit strategic planning process is new, the city has been engaged in transit planning activities for years. For each of the 7 goals, we have listed existing transit planning activities previously or currently being undertaken by the city. This is an opportunity to ask questions about any of these programs and initiatives.
- 7:00 PM Public comments
- 7:15 PM Small wine reception hosted by Harvard Square Business Association.
- 7:30 PM ADJOURN
