

Inclusion Thought of the Week

Feb 13th -17th

This week is Random Acts of Kindness Week! This week is a great reminder of how one good deed can make a world of difference. As Ghandi once said, "Be the change you wish to see in the world." Join the Inclusion Initiative this week as we celebrate every individual's ability to make positive change in our world.

Check out the website and officially sign up to be a "RAKTIVIST" (Random Acts of Kindness Activist) right here. Right now there are thousands of RAKTIVISTs participating of all ages and all around the world.

Here are some "kid approved" ideas for random acts of kindness. What others ideas can you think of?

- Sit with someone new at lunch
- Thank a teacher or helper
- Clean up a piece of trash (even if it isn't yours)

- Give someone a compliment
- Ask a new classmate to join in your game at recess
- Hold the door for a classmate

Check out more ideas here.

Check out our Pinterest Page and follow us for plenty of tips on classroom inclusion, print-outs, sensory activities and more. Please take the time to 'Like' us on Facebook on our Inclusion Page! Questions, comments, suggestions? Email Inclusion: Nicole Horton-Stimpson at nhorton@cambridgema.gov OR Brett Dixon at bdixon@cambridgema.gov