What is the HSAC?
Role of the HSAC

Generally: The Harvard Square Advisory Committee (HSAC) reviews & comments on land use & development proposals in the Harvard Square Overlay District per the Cambridge Zoning Ordinance (Section 20.50).

Specifically: The Committee conducts Large Project Review consultations and comments on applications for variances & special permits from the Planning Board & Board of Zoning Appeal (BZA), as well as other proposals.
Authority of the HSAC

The Harvard Square Advisory Committee (HSAC) is an advisory body, not an adjudicatory body. This means that it makes recommendations on various projects to other boards & commissions but does not grant approvals.
Relationship to Other Boards & Commissions

Planning Board
- Makes decisions on certain types of special permits per the Zoning Ordinance.
- HSAC makes advisory recommendations to Planning Board.

Board of Zoning Appeals (BZA)
- Makes decisions on zoning relief, including special permits & variances.
- HSAC makes advisory recommendations to BZA.

Historical Commission
- Issues certificates for projects in the Harvard Square Conservation District (separate from zoning).
- More of an informal than a direct relationship.
Other CDD Advisory Committees – Zoning

Central Square Advisory Committee (CSAC)

• Reviews and comments on land use & development proposals in the Central Square Overlay District per the Cambridge Zoning Ordinance (Section 20.300).
• Similar structure and purpose to HSAC.
• Shares staff with HSAC.
Other CDD Advisory Committees – Not Zoning

Transit Advisory Committee (TAC)
- Guides Cambridge policies regarding a wide variety of transit-related issues
- Membership includes residents, stakeholders, & business representatives.

Bicycle Committee
- Reviews City plans for road construction; comments on pending bicycle-related ordinances; organizes & participates in public outreach.
- Membership includes residents & City staff from CDD, TP&T, Police, & DPW.

Pedestrian Committee
- Develops policies & design guidelines; makes suggestions about proposed development projects & the design of roadway projects; public outreach.
- Membership includes residents & City staff from CDD, TP&T, Police, and DPW.

Base Zoning in the HSOD

Zoning Districts:
- Residence C-1
- Residence C-2
- Residence C-2B
- Residence C-3
- Office 2
- Office 3
- Business A
- Business B
- PUD-1
- Open Space
Residential Base Zoning

Ranges from low- to high-density (i.e., FAR of 0.75 up to 3.00, height of 35' to 120').

All districts allow multi-family dwellings in addition to single-family & two-family dwellings.

Predominantly residential but allows some institutional uses such as schools and hospitals. Hotels & motels are allowed in some districts.

Most types of commercial land uses, such as offices, laboratories, & retail business, are not allowed.
Commercial Base Zoning

Ranges from low- to high-density (i.e., FAR of 1.00 up to 3.00, height of 35' to 120').

Office districts allow an eclectic mix of business and professional office uses as well as all types of housing & institutional uses as-of-right. They restrict various retail & industrial uses.

Business districts allow a wide range of typical neighborhood business uses, such as convenience stores, pharmacies, and restaurants, as well as office & residential uses. They also allow all types of housing & institutional uses as-of-right. Fast Order Food Establishments can be allowed by a BZA Special Permit.
