Happy 25th Anniversary Cambridge Council on Aging
Dear Seniors,

I would like to share a story with you. At a recent staff meeting, I asked staff to share a good thing that they had experienced during the weekend. It was great to hear the various stories. When my turn came, I shared the following victory for both my husband and me.

A grape vine that yielded bunches of grapes! The story behind this is the following. Three years ago, my husband wanted to start a grape vine. He had purchased six vines. Unfortunately, the 1st year three were not viable. The second year, two were lost, due to the invasion of various critters in our yard. Now year three, my husband was determined to save the remaining branch. He protected it with various screens and wires. It grew tall and strong and then to our amazement, various bunches of grapes began to appear. We have lovingly overseen it the last couple of months, wondering how the grapes would fare. Well, this past Sunday we harvested twenty bunches! We were overly excited! The careful cultivation had yielded an abundant harvest. Sharing this story stirred memories among a couple of staff members, remembering fond memories of childhoods spent under their grandparents’ grape arbor. The coolness and shadiness it provided on hot summer days. The beauty of those deep, purple bunches of grapes hanging above their heads. Our one grape vine is far from a vast grape arbor, but with continued care, we just may get there some day.

Why have I chosen this story to share? I chose it for many reasons, but it leads me to where we are this month. The month of October the Council on Aging (COA) celebrates the 25th Anniversary of the Cambridge Senior Center. On October 31, 1995, the newly built Center opened its doors to the older adult community of Cambridge. I had just been newly hired at the COA and expecting my first child. I was young embarking on two new roles, but all I simply knew was that I was eager to get started.

Fast forward to current day, and here I am as the Executive Director of this incredible department. Despite all that I have learned in these 25 years, I may be just as excited and curious as I was on that crisp October day, “creating a welcoming place for all”.

I invite you to join us in a virtual anniversary celebration on Thursday, October 15th at 1:00 p.m. On that day we will celebrate by having DJ: Owen Howell provide all your favorite music. It will be an opportunity for all of us to dance like nobody is watching (because remember you can shut the video off during Zoom). We ask you to call 617-349-6220 and we will provide you with a Zoom link invitation so that you can join us. It is not the celebration we had envisioned when we thought of our 25th Anniversary, but it will be fun!

So, just as my grape vine, with continued tending, will blossom and bear fruit. The Center will also continue to blossom and grow by the care and dedication of the staff and its participants.

Happy Anniversary to us all!!!

Alone Together – Film & Discussion

Ted Talk – “The Danger of a Single Story”
Our lives, our cultures, are composed of many overlapping stories. Novelist Chimamanda Adichie tells the story of how she found her authentic cultural voice -- and warns that if we hear only a single story about another person or country, we risk a critical misunderstanding.

This is a new approach to our film & discussion group. We will all view a 20 minute Youtube video on our own prior to the meeting and then get together on Zoom to have a discussion about it.

If you would like to register for this month’s Film & Discussion please contact Vincent McCarthy at 617-349-6216 or vmccarthy@cambridgema.gov by Monday, October 26th and he will send you the Zoom invitation and discussion questions.

October is that time of year that ushers in cooler weather, leaves falling from trees and the seasonal color of orange.
