

Join Us for the Annual Bow Tie Bike Ride!

Celebrate Cambridge's growing bike network on the Bow Tie Bike Ride, hosted by the Cambridge Bicycle Committee and the Department of Transportation!

Oct 03

9:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Meet at Sennott Park

Broadway at Tremont Street

Join us on this relaxed, family-friendly ride on mostly level terrain. Our ride will use streets, bike lanes, and paths, celebrating Cambridge's growing bike network. We recommend that children younger than 10 ride tandem with an adult (trailers, bike seats, tag-alongs, etc.).

The ride will begin promptly at 10:00 a.m.

This is a rain-or-shine event. However, the ride will be canceled in the event of inclement weather.

9:30 a.m.

We will provide simple bike checks with on-site mechanics.

10:00 a.m.

Ride starts from Sennott Park

12:00 p.m.

Stay for sandwiches and wraps, including vegetarian and vegan options

Visit the event website for more information and a route map.

No bike? No problem!

Request a free Bluebikes pass by Thursday, Oct 1
Email bluebikes@cambridgema.gov

Route Map

Did you know?

Cambridge will soon surpass 100 Bluebikes stations this year!

Today, nearly half of all Bluebikes trips start or end in Cambridge and the city hosts the busiest stations.

A third of Cambridge residents and most workers in Cambridge are within a three-minute walk to a station.

Scan to read the Biking in
Cambridge Data Report
2025

