CPL Presents: On Mindful Democracy HYBRID

Tuesday, October 20, 6-7:30 p.m.

📍 Main Library Lecture Hall

Join the Cambridge Public Library in welcoming Jeremy David Engels for a reading and discussion of his latest book, On Mindful Democracy: A Declaration of Interdependence to Mend a Fractured World. We find ourselves living through a time when much-needed political discourse seems to be getting increasingly inflammatory and partisan—Jeremy David Engels, in On Mindful Democracy, proposes the benefits of mindfulness in the sociopolitical sphere. Smithsonian called the book “a practical guide to staying open and curious while engaging with all sorts of people and ideas.” Registration is required.

The City of Cambridge does not discriminate on the basis of disability. The Cambridge Public Library will provide auxiliary aids and services, written materials in alternative formats, and reasonable modifications in policies and procedures to persons with disabilities upon request.

Rudenstine Professor of the Study of Latin America at Harvard University, Arthur Kleinman, the Esther and Sidney Rabb Professor of Anthropology at Harvard, Stephanie Paulsell, Professor Emerita at Harvard Divinity School, and Michael Puett, the Walter C. Klein Professor of Chinese History and Anthropology at Harvard, for a discussion of their new book, The Practice of Wisdom: Five Quests. They will be joined in conversation by Rev. Matthew Ichihashi Potts—Minister in the Memorial Church and Plummer Professor of Christian Morals at Harvard University. Registration is required.

CPL Presents: America Unfinished: 250 Years of Law and Governance IN-PERSON

Thursday, October 29, 6-7:30 p.m.

Main Library Lecture Hall

Join editors Alexandra Natapoff and Guy-Uriel Charles, along with contributors to America Unfinished: 250 Years of Law and Governance, for a discussion of this new collection of essays marking America's 250th anniversary. America Unfinished brings together more than 50 legal scholars from the Harvard Law School faculty to examine a pivotal moment in American law and governance. The collection's 62 essays explore topics including the expansion of executive power, the relationship between workers, consumers, and markets, democratic accountability in a market-driven economy, and the future of knowledge and governance institutions amid rapid technological change. Registration is not required.

Workshops

Solo Aging Series VIRTUAL

Thursday, October 1, 2-3:30 p.m.

Thursday, October 15, 2-3:30 p.m.

📍 Zoom

Join Marni Blank, founder of Begin with the End, for a three-part series designed to give solo agers and those preparing for that possibility the practical tools, emotional support, and community connection they need to plan with confidence.

Session 2 (October 1): Practical Tools for Planning Ahead This session walks through what documents, decisions and systems to have in place, how to choose the right support and how to organize your financial and digital life so someone can step in if needed.

Session 3 (October 15): Taking Action: Mindset, Legacy, and Making it Stick Here we'll address the emotional barriers that keep us stuck, reframing planning as something we do for ourselves and not a sign of decline.

LIBRARY CARD Design Contest

Adventure Awaits... at the Library! October 15-November 15

What adventures have you had at the Library? Stories you've read, new skills you've learned, or worlds you've imagined?

In our inaugural library card design contest, share your illustration of a journey you've gone on through the Cambridge Public Library.

Beginning October 15, if you live, work, or go to school in Cambridge, submit your original designs to be featured on new, limited-edition library cards to come in 2027.

One adult and one youth winner will see their design featured on library cards and be selected for a grand prize.

Finalists will be displayed in the Library and featured on our website and social media.

All entrants must agree to the Photo/Creative Works Release and submit their designs online by Sunday, November 15 at 5 p.m.

Only complete entries will be reviewed.

If chosen as a winner, the Library will contact you directly. Winners will have the opportunity to be featured alongside their design.

Learn more on our website.

Online Resource of the Month:

The Boston Globe Online

The Boston Globe is a daily publication that covers news across New England, with a focus on the Boston metro area. The Library is proud to offer it in print at all our locations. Did you know that you can also use your Minuteman library card for online access to the Globe?

Use the link at camb.ma/cplonline

or the QR code

then follow the steps to log in or create an account.

Your library login gives you 72 hours of access to all Boston Globe content, via BostonGlobe.com or the Boston Globe mobile app.

After the 72-hour period has ended, simply use the same library link to renew your access and log in with your existing BostonGlobe.com account.

Looking for a more thoroughly indexed, searchable archive for research purposes?

Your library card also unlocks the full text of the Globe (1872 to 2007) via ProQuest Historical Newspapers.

Visit camb.ma/cplonline for Boston Globe access today, or visit a CPL location to learn more.

Hive Workshops for October 2026

All participants must complete the Hive Safety Training before attending Hive Workshops.

Getting Started

Completion of Hive Safety Training is the entry point to making, innovating, and collaborating in this space. Makers must also sign The Hive User Agreement and Waivers.

Hive Safety Training IN-PERSON OR VIRTUAL Learn about our makerspace, how to utilize the resources we offer and how to keep safe in The Hive. The training includes a tour of The Hive, either in-person or virtually.

Certification Workshops

3D Printing 101: Game Piece Design IN-PERSON Learn how to create your favorite game piece in digital space and print it out using our Prusa 3D printers.

Digital Embroidery 101 IN-PERSON Want to learn how to create custom clothing and other fiber projects with embroidered text? In this workshop, you'll use a digital embroidery machine to stitch personalized designs and take home a unique piece. This class is for those with prior sewing machine experience. If you're new to sewing, we recommend taking our Sewing 101 workshop first.

Serger 101 IN-PERSON Are you an intermediate or advanced sewer? This workshop will cover serger machine setup, threading a serger, and identifying correct tension settings with different types of fabric.

Welcome to the state-of-the-art makerspace located at the Main Library! It is a hub for STEAM learning, creativity, and community collaboration in Cambridge. Its mission is to provide free, hands-on learning opportunities to the Cambridge community, resources for personal projects, and to serve as a hub for skill sharing and creative collaboration.

The Hive is open to individuals with a Minuteman library card. The space is designed for independent use for patrons ages 12 and up and supervised use for children under the age of 12.

Registration is required for all Hive workshops.

Sewing 101 IN-PERSON Learn the basics of sewing machine operation and safety. This session will cover machine setup, basic functions, threading the machine, reloading the bobbin, sewing straight stitches, and recognizing when stitch tension has gone awry.

Studio Recording 101 IN-PERSON Are you interested in podcasting, audio production, or video production? Join this workshop to become familiar with studio equipment and software.

Videography 101 IN-PERSON Step into the Hive's state-of-the-art recording studio and film a short video of yourself in front of our green screen. Then, spend some time becoming familiar with video editing software while working with your footage.

Vinyl Cutting 101 IN-PERSON Would you like to make your own vinyl signs, stickers, or images to transfer to T-shirts and other textiles? Learn how to use our Roland Camm-1 GS-24 vinyl cutter.

XR Lab 101 IN-PERSON Extended reality (XR) opens the door to worlds and experiences outside the everyday through virtual reality, augmented reality, and mixed reality equipment.

Zing Laser Cutting 101 IN-PERSON Learn how to use our Epilog Zing to laser cut, engrave and shape designs from a variety of materials.

Open Shop-Equipment and Studio Reservations

Use the equipment and spaces in The Hive to design, craft, and make. Patrons certified on Hive equipment are welcome to reserve time for personal use. Staff will assist as they are able.
