

The background of the entire poster is a deep blue. It features a faint, light-blue line drawing of Cambridge City Hall, showing its iconic clock tower and multiple stories of windows. Scattered across the blue background are numerous small, colorful dots in white, yellow, and light blue, resembling confetti or stars.

THE CAMBRIDGE
HISTORICAL COMMISSION
INVITES YOU TO THE

2025 PRESERVATION AWARDS

Thursday, June 12, 2025

Cambridge City Hall: 795 Massachusetts Avenue
at the Sullivan Chamber or view live on:
<https://tinyurl.com/CHCAwards2025>

5:30 Light refreshments

6:00 Illustrated program

7:00 Awards presentation

Accessible entrance located on Dorothy "Dottie" Doyle Way

RSVP to Kit Rawlins before June 5:
krawlins@cambridgema.gov

2025 Preservation Award Projects

Cambridge City Hall, 795 Massachusetts Avenue (1889)

St. Augustine's African Orthodox Church, 137 Allston Street (1886)

New England Maple Syrup Company, 90 Binney Street (1907)

Edward & Julia Joyce three-family, 95 Fayerweather Street (1910)

Inman Square Fire Station, 214 Hampshire Street (1913)

Harvard Square Kiosk (1927)

Notre Dame de Pitié Rectory, 35 Harvey Street (1895)

Haliburton Brock House, 5-7 Irving Terrace (1888)

Sustainable Living Houses, 13 Kirkland Place (1856) and 5 Sacramento Street (1891)

Central Square Church, 5 Magazine Street (1881)

Mary P. Saunders House, 28 Prentiss Street (1882)

Maria Baldwin House, 196 Prospect Street (1839)

Gund Hall, 46 Quincy Street (1969)

Seth Hardy House, 8 Worcester Street (1839)

