Collection Description:

This collection consists of four account books from the J.H.W. Hill Druggist which was located at 28 River Street in Cambridge. The books include lists of sales arranged by date, as well as occasional weekly summaries of total sales. The books also contain doodles and notes in the inner covers, in one volume including the well-known rhyme for remembering how many days are in a month: "30 days hath September, April, June, & November. Each one has 31 except February alone, and that has 28 days."
