5:30PM

Zoom Meeting

Call of the Meeting

The Open Data Review Board (ODRB) advises the City Manager on rules and standards for implementation of an Open Data policy, including a means by which to determine the data or datasets that are appropriate for public accessibility and a timeline for policy implementation. During this meeting, the ODRB will discuss how Cambridge might use open data to further the City's strategic initiatives.

Welcome & Progress Report on Open Data in Cambridge

- Introduction of Reinhard Engels, the new Data Analysis & Open Data Program Manager

Discussion Topics

- ODRB's Role and Processes in the Post-COVID-Emergency Era: A collective discussion on potential changes to the way these meetings should be conducted and how we can better leverage ODRB members' expertise and connections.
- Enhancing User-Friendliness of the Open Data Portal for Non-Experts: Brainstorming on improving the at-a-glance understanding of available data, aligning datasets more visibly to City initiatives and priorities, and exploring other ideas for events or partnerships to spread the word about open data.
- Adapting to Recent Developments in AI: Exploring the short and long-term impacts on Open Data and identifying any additional expert guidance required.

Potential questions for discussion during the upcoming ODRB meeting

ODRB's Role and Processes in the Post-COVID-Emergency Era

- Any changes to the way these meetings should be conducted? Zoom, in-person?
- Beyond meetings, how can we better leverage ODRB members' expertise and connections?

Enhancing User-Friendliness of the Open Data Portal for Non-Experts

- How can we provide a better at-a-glance sense of the data available?
- How do we better highlight the relevance of open data to live policy concerns? More visibly align datasets to City initiatives and priorities?
- Any other ideas for events or partnerships to spread the word about open data?
- Missing open data: how to get a better sense of what the public would like to see?

Adapting to Recent Developments in AI

- What are the impacts on Open Data? Short term? Long term?
- What additional expert guidance do we need, if any?
