I am writing to express my opposition to any of the Tobin development plans that include eliminating the Tobin recreational field. Talented architects should be able to design a renovation that expands vertically rather than spreads out into much needed green space.

Maryann Doiron