

Disability Reframed Community Film Series
presents a FREE screening of:

The Heart is a Lonely Hunter

Saturday, July 26, 2014

2-5pm

Cambridge Main library

449 Broadway

(lecture Hall)

“The Heart is a Lonely Hunter” (1968)
starring Alan Arkin, Sandra Locke, and Cicely Tyson.

Taking place in the Deep South, this is a story of a Deaf man who rents a room in the home of a struggling family as their teen-age daughter is coming of age.

This screening will be followed by a lively moderated audience discussion.
Free light refreshments!

This is a scent-free event. Please refrain from using perfume or other scented products. We strive to be accessible for those with environmental illness and/or multiple chemical sensitivity. For sign language interpreters or other accommodations, please contact the Cambridge Commission for Persons with Disabilities by July 17 at 617-349-4692 (voice) or 617-492-0235 (TTY) or e-mail: ccpd@cambridgema.gov.
