

Community Training

Working with Survivors of Domestic Violence

Come Join Us...

Presenter: Transition House & the City of Cambridge Domestic & Gender-Based Violence Prevention Initiative

This training will cover the dynamics of abuse, working with survivors, tips for responding to disclosures, and the chance to connect with many resources in Cambridge who help survivors. Staff from Transition House, the City of Cambridge, and other community resources will be presenting on all of these topics.

This training is geared towards those who have not yet participated in any domestic violence training.

This is a FREE training. Space is limited, so please confirm your attendance by October 12th.
