Services for Children and Youth

The Department of Human Service Programs offers several different types of summer services for children and youth throughout the City. Through the Community School Programs, enrichment classes and summer camps are offered in almost every elementary school for children K-8. Through the Youth Programs, licensed programs for pre-teens ages 9-13 operate in five youth centers around the city. Evening Programs are offered for teens ages 14-18 at each of the Youth Centers.

For more general information about the programs, see the descriptions below. In the pages that follow these general descriptions, the individual programs are listed by neighborhood to help families locate programs near or in their child's school or in their neighborhood.

Community Schools

The Division of Community Schools provides a network of neighborhood services offering educational, cultural, social and recreational opportunities for all age groups. There are 12 Community Schools, one located in each elementary school. Community School Directors and Staff work with their Neighborhood Councils to assess community needs and to create high quality, cost effective out of school time programs to address them, including after school enrichment classes, two extended day programs with the School Department, full-day summer and school vacation camps. All programs have been adapted to include participation of children with special needs. Registration for the summer is held through early June. See individual Community School Program listings for registration dates.

The Community Schools provide programs that foster community, such as Summer Arts in the Park, Camp Information Night, cultural and social events for families and senior citizens, and children's performances in music, dance and theater. Participants in these programs represent the racial and ethnic diversity of Cambridge. Community Schools also collaborate with local cultural and social service organizations. Tuition assistance is provided in all aspects of the programs.

Youth Programs

The Cambridge Youth Programs (CYP) offer diverse, high quality programs that promote leadership and youth development through enrichment activities, unique experiences, and opportunities to develop relationships with adults and peers. Our programs enable Cambridge youth to thrive and feel a sense of belonging, resulting in young adults who are ready for future employment, higher education, citizenship and adult life.

A diverse, multitalented staff provides direct service, enrichment opportunities and mentorship for young people enrolled in our programs. Each Youth Center has three full-time staff members who guide program staff in leading planned programs and ensure that programs operate within our Principles of Practice. A part-time staff of approximately 50 Youth Workers provides mentorship and implements program activities. Our five fully-equipped youth centers include classroom space, meeting rooms, gymnasiums, kitchens and easy access to parks. CYP provides year-round activities for more than one thousand youth. The centers are conveniently located in five Cambridge neighborhoods.

The Cambridge Youth Programs operate afterschool programs for preteens and middle schoolers and programs for teens. Our programs are designed to be in alignment with national research, promoting youth development and leadership. We offer additional programs that are offered during school vacation weeks and summer months.

The Margaret Fuller Neighborhood House Summer Explorations

The Margaret Fuller House Summer Explorations

continues to have a profound impact on the children who participate in our program. These "explorations" are designed to help campers grow and develop both on the inside, socially and emotionally, and externally, through exposure to new ideas and realms of knowledge. Externally, children are given a rich variety of opportunities to explore the world at large: through team-based and individual activities, academic enrichment, science and art, nature and environment, sports and games, and numerous field trips to a range of different destinations. Field trips and community engagements help to expand the children's awareness that there is a much larger world beyond the narrow confines of their everyday experiences in the city. Internal exploration comes through the enrichment of the imagination and the growth of social and emotional skills. The self-expressive modes of art and writing help to foster imagination and intellectual growth, while the strong social support network and family atmosphere of Margaret Fuller House help children develop into well-balanced, emotionally healthy human beings. While the children may be unaware of this protective umbrella which shelters them, their parents are not. At Margaret Fuller, we work hard to develop close and open lines of communication with parents and guardians and to keep a running dialogue which tracks the development, strengths and weaknesses of each child in the program. Parents come to us frequently and share their appreciation for this close attention to their children, and to let us know how significant their kids' growth has been over the course the summer. This culture of learning and exploration at Margaret Fuller House has helped to make Summer Explorations a much-sought after program, with families competing vigorously to have their children take part.

Summer Explorations at The Margaret Fuller Neighborhood House will run from June 28 to August 27, and we will be open from 8 am to 6 pm, Monday through Friday.

- We accept children ranging in age from 4yrs 10 months years to 12 years old, and enroll up to 48 children. (Our program usually fills up its enrollment, so spots are fairly competitive.)
- The program costs $125.00 per week, but we accept CCRC vouchers, and offer scholarships depending on family income and need.
- Families can enroll week by week, although we do require two weeks of advance notice concerning which weeks children will be attending.
- We have a very high staff-to-child ratio, usually at 7:1 (which does not include interns, volunteers, and teenage assistants).
- Most of our frontline staff have bachelor's degrees.

- We make biweekly visits to Gold Star Mother's pool for swimming lessons and also have free swim twice per week.
- We average 12 to 14 field trips per summer

Early Childhood Services

The Department of Human Services Programs Childcare Division manages 6 Preschool Programs for children ages 2.9-5 years (i.e., not yet in kindergarten). All programs are licensed through the Department of Early Education and Care as well as accredited by the prestigious National Association for the Education of Young Children Academy (NAYEC).

Programs are strategically located in elementary schools throughout the city. Classroom ratios are 4 teachers to 17 students. Children may enter preschool anytime throughout the year. Since many programs have waitlists, families are encouraged to begin the application process well in advance of when they would like their children to enter; children can be placed on a wait-list as early as their first birthday.

Tuition and Tuition Assistance:

Tuition is determined by a family's income and paid monthly. Families may be eligible for partial subsidy of tuition through the City's Scholarship Fund. To apply for assistance, families complete and return the Tuition Assistance Request Form. Families are required to submit financial information.

Families of preschool children may be eligible for a Department of Early Care and Education subsidy. Childcare vouchers are also accepted.

For further information, contact the Enrollment Coordinator at (617) 349-6254. Families can also stop by our 3rd floor offices at 51 Inman Street.

Cambridge Kids' Council

Cambridge, MA 02139
Contact: Mary Wong, Executive Director
(617) 349-6239
mwong@cambridgema.gov

The Coordinating Council for Children, Youth and Families (Cambridge Kids' Council), established in 1991, is a City board dedicated to improving the quality of life for its children and their families through making policy recommendations and setting up programs and services. The Council brings together parents, youths, community organizations, top City officials, and representatives of philanthropy, business, and universities to advocate for the well being of Cambridge children.

To achieve its mission for collective and coordinated action on behalf of our city's children and youth, the Kids' Council established five citywide goals in April 2010 as the Cambridge Vision for Lifelong Success of Children, Youth and Families. The five goals are:

1. Children are ready for school;
2. Children and youth are healthy and live in safe communities;
3. Children and youth succeed in school and are prepared for work;
4. Children and youth are engaged in enriching activities and civic life;
5. Children and youth live in stable, self-sufficient, supportive families.

Other initiatives of the Kids' Council to achieve its mission are:

Centers for Families

Centers for Families is an initiative to develop school-linked, neighborhood-based family support centers for all families, particularly to those with children from birth to age 5. By coordinating formal and informal resources, the centers will link families to a full range of services to support them in nurturing their young children. The initiative began with the establishment of the Center for Families of North Cambridge in 1994.

Agenda for Children

Introduced to the city in 1997, this initiative is to bring together different city departments, community-based organizations, businesses, philanthropies, and residents to ensure that our city's children are healthy and successful in school while living in strong communities. A special feature of this initiative is Community Engagement, to ensure community involvement in the planning and implementation of the initiative's two goals.

Goal #1

Children and their families will be able to read.

Goal #2

Children and youth will have equal access to safe, stimulating, and nurturing and healthful out-of-school time activities.

Youth Involvement

Began in 2001, this initiative is to develop a group of young people working with adult support to increase youth participation in the civic life of Cambridge. The initiative's guiding principles are:

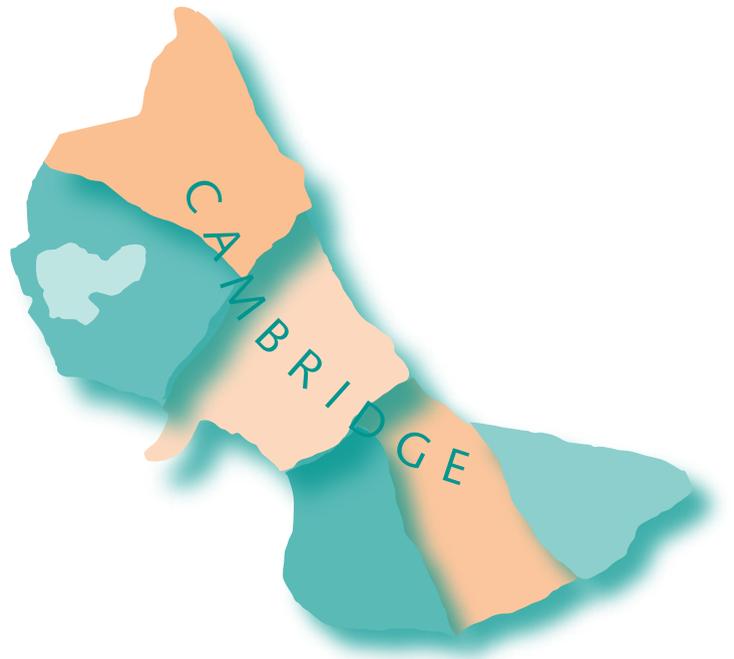

- To have as many youth participate in opportunities created by and for young people
- To ensure diverse representation of youth throughout the city of Cambridge.

The goals of the initiative are to have youth develop leadership skills, voices to raise issues that are important to them, solutions to those issues, and a vehicle for youth to get engaged in the City's decision-making process. Youth ages 14 to 18 are recruited to participate in the planning and implementation of short and long term projects.

Policy Plan for Inclusion of Children & Families with Disabilities

In November 2002, the need for a citywide policy plan for inclusion of children and youth with disabilities in out-of-school time programs and activities was identified. The Kids' Council formed a subcommittee in February 2004 to develop the Cambridge Policy Plan for Inclusion of Individuals with Disabilities in Out-of-School Time Programs. In February 2005, the Cambridge City Council and School Committee unanimously adopted that Policy Plan, making it an official City policy.

Parents and interested parties are invited to attend the Kids' Council meetings and participate in the Council's working groups. Please contact us for additional information.

Commission for Persons with Disabilities

51 Inman Street, second floor
Cambridge, MA 02139

People with disabilities face many obstacles in their efforts to be full and active members of society. A shortage of resources, attitudes that stigmatize, and information and activities that are not accessible are all examples of barriers that lead to isolation. For over 30 years the Cambridge Commission for Persons with Disabilities has been working to eliminate these barriers.

On a daily basis, Commission staff answer questions, provide information, referrals and technical assistance to individuals and their families, City departments, public agencies, businesses and private non-profit organizations. We promote equal opportunity and work to eliminate discrimination against individuals with all types of disabilities – physical, mental and sensory. Examples of our ongoing work include:

- Advocate for improved access to housing, transportation, education, businesses, employment, and leisure time activities for people with disabilities
- Work with City departments to ensure compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and other state and federal disability rights laws
- Teach disability awareness in workshops and presentations to children, adults, businesses, non-profits and City departments
- Provide free taxi discount coupons to disabled Cambridge residents
- Issue temporary Disability Parking Permits for use in Cambridge

The goal of our 11-member advisory board, comprised primarily of individuals with disabilities, is to promote full participation for people with disabilities in all aspects of Cambridge community life. The Commission meets at 5:30 pm on the second Thursday of each month. Join us; all of our meetings include an opportunity for public comment.

Our free newsletter, AccessLetter, is published six times a year and provides news and information on a variety of disability related topics. AccessLetter also includes a calendar listing dates and times for various events, including movie screenings from our new Disability Reframed community film series.
