2. New Business

Summary

1. Events & Programmatic Updates
  - The Commission welcomed the Cambridge Girls in Sports Intern, working with the commission for the month of January focusing on creating a resource for families on sports opportunities for girls in Cambridge.
  - The Commission was updated on logistics for Girls Sports Night and Players for Prevention: A Community Pledge where the CRLS's boys varsity basketball team, along with the opposing team, Lincoln Sudbury, will participate in an awareness building workshop a week before their game in order to make a Gender-Based Violence Prevention Pledge on game night.
  - The Commission was updated on the upcoming WEN and Women & Words events.
2. New Business
  - Raising awareness on the increase of misogyny occurring across the country that is not limited to online comments but also in daily interactions.
  - Potential message board or location for donating/sharing sports equipment that kids either outgrow or no longer use. Creating a space where parents can share/gift sports equipment to anyone. Find where this exists already in Cambridge.
  - Commissioner assigned to provide the topic for the next open slot in the quarterly Women & Words! Event series.
  - Question posed on whether the City can use AI for notetaking
