

EMPLOYEES'
COMMITTEE ON DIVERSITY

Cambridge Black History Month Celebration

WEDNESDAY • FEB 20, 2019 • 6:30 - 8 PM

Cambridge City Hall, Sullivan Chamber, 2nd Floor
795 Massachusetts Ave. Cambridge MA

In celebration of Black History Month, the City of Cambridge Employees' Committee on Diversity welcomes Kim McLarin, Associate Professor and Graduate Program Director for Popular Fiction and Publishing at Emerson College in Boston. McLarin is the author of the critically-acclaimed novels Taming It Down, Meeting of the Waters, Jump at the Sun, and of the memoir Divorce Dog: Men, Motherhood and Midlife. Her latest essay collection, Womanish: A Grown Black Woman Speaks on Love and Life, was published in January 2019. McLarin appears regularly on the Emmy-Award winning show Basic Black, Boston's long-running television program devoted to African-American themes.

Light refreshments will be served. This event is free and open to the public!

Sponsored by the City of Cambridge Employees' Committee on Diversity, the City Manager's Office, and Mayor Marc C. McGovern.

