DREAM BIG: JUSTICE FOR ALL

A Conversation about Educational Justice in Prisons

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 7:00 PM
MAIN LIBRARY, LECTURE HALL

Dream Big, the Cambridge Public Library Foundation's annual signature event, convenes Cambridge residents and thought leaders to explore timely issues confronting our nation's citizens and civic institutions. This year, Dream Big addresses social justice with a focus on incarceration and education. It is a pressing consideration, with 2.3 million people incarcerated in the U.S. today. This event is free and open to all. Registration required. RSVP to lina@cplfound.org or call 857-235-9278.

OUR PATH FORWARD EVENTS IN OCTOBER

Professor Sung-Yoon Lee on US - DPRK Relations

Tuesday, October 9, 6:30 PM
Main Library, Lecture Hall

What are the ramifications of improved US - DPRK relations for longtime allies like Japan and South Korea? Will this new dispensation lead to a treaty formally bringing an end to the Korean War? Dr. Sung-Yoon Lee will walk us through the complex relationship between the United States and the Democratic People Republic of Korea.

Karilyn Crockett People Before Highways

Tuesday, October 16, 6:30 PM
Main Library, Lecture Hall

Linking archival research, ethnographic fieldwork, and oral history, Karilyn Crockett in People Before Highways, offers ground-level analysis of the social, political, and environmental significance of a local anti-highway protest and its lasting national implications.

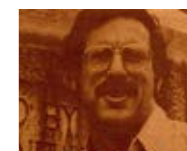

These events are part of the Our Path Forward series presented by the Library to affirm its commitment to public discourse and democracy.

Mackenzi Lee Bygone Badass Broads

Monday, October 1, 6:30 PM
Main Library, Lecture Hall

Mackenzi Lee is the author of Bygone Badass Broads, a collection of short biographies of amazing women from history you probably don't know about, but definitely should. This event is co-sponsored by Porter Square Books.

Professor Michael Meltsner with David Medwed

Tuesday, October 2, 6:30 PM
Main Library, Lecture Hall

With Passion: An Activist Lawyer's Life chronicles the improbable journey of Michael Meltsner, from his roots in a Depression battered New York family, to his work as civil rights lawyer defending Mohammed Ali and civil rights protesters, to his role as a principal architect of the death penalty abolition movement in the United States.

Screening of Circle Up & Post-Screening Restorative Justice Circle

Tuesday, October 30, 6:00 PM
Main Library, Lecture Hall

After the brutal slaying of her teenage son, Janet Connors reaches out to her son's killer to offer a chance at forgiveness. They team up with a group of mothers of murdered children to help young people in their community break the chain of violence and revenge and in so doing pioneered the use of restorative justice circles. This event is co-sponsored by the Cambridge Commission on the Status of Women.

Cheryl Suchors, 48 Peaks

Wednesday, October 17, 6:30 PM
Main Library, Lecture Hall

Floundering in her second career, 48-year old Cheryl Suchors resolves that her mid-life success depends on hiking the highest of the grueling White Mountains in New Hampshire. All forty-eight of them. 48 Peaks inspires us to believe that, no matter what obstacles we face, we too can attain our summits.
