

Cambridge Common and Flagstaff Park Reconstruction Project

Before & After

City of Cambridge

June 2016

Before

After

Flagstaff Park expanded into unused roadway space to create a walking and biking connection

Before

After

New entryways were created, which meet all access codes

Before

After

Paving was reduced around the Civil War monument

Before

After

Access to curbside parking was improved

Before

After

Over 120 trees were planted and older understory plantings were removed

Before

After

A two-way multi-use path was constructed at Flagstaff Park to create better walking and biking connections to Harvard Square