This is to certify that the following is an official vote of the Cambridge Historical Commission, taken at its meeting of November 1, 1967:

After discussion, on motion duly made and seconded, it was unanimously VOTED that temporary signs advertising charitable events for no more than one week prior to the event, if no more than 15 square feet in size, are found now not to be inappropriate in historic districts, and that no certificate of appropriateness be required therefor unless and until the Commission shall for good cause vote to change this policy.
