

Key findings are unchanged as the Alewife Area remains one of the most vulnerable area to flooding as early as 2030. Few assets however have changed status. The Professional Ambulatory Services off Concord Avenue are no longer at risk of flooding and consequently only reported at risk to extreme heat. The Eliot Bridge is no longer a priority asset at risk of flooding by 2070 which is important as a regional connector to the Fresh Pond Parkway.

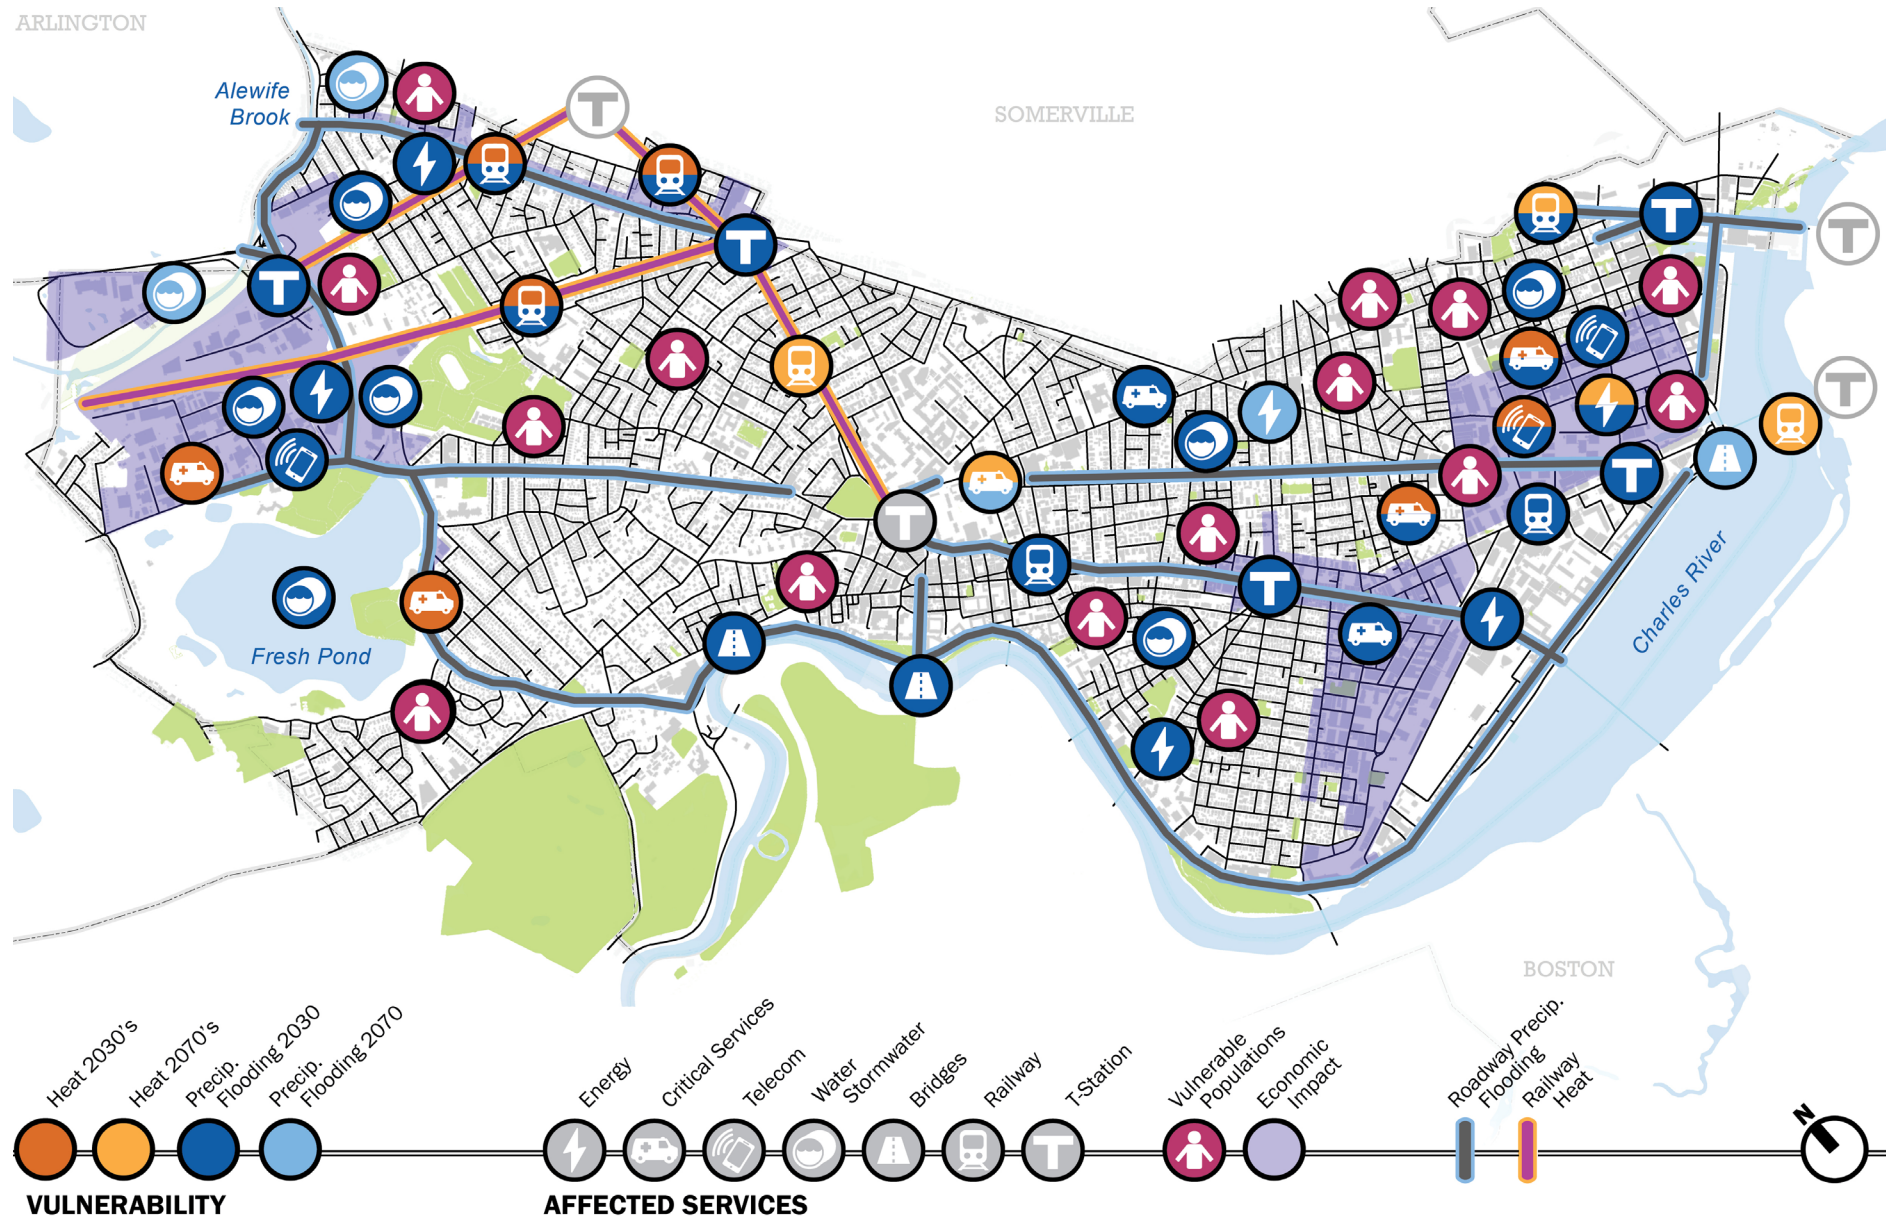

Fig. 4 Priority Planning Areas Map (Source: Kleinfelder, April 2017)