LGBTQ+ Film Series
10am on the last Tuesday

September 26 Milk

Milk is a biographical film based on the life of gay rights activist and politician Harvey Milk. He was the first openly gay man to hold public office in California and was elected as a member of San Francisco Board of Supervisors in 1977.   Rated R

October 31 - Moonlight

American coming-of-age drama film written and directed by Barry Jenkins, based on Tarell Alvin McCraney's unpublished semi-autobiographical play In Moonlight Black Boys Look Blue. It was released as the first LGBTQ-themed mass-marketed feature film with an all-black cast.   Rated R

November 28 - But I'm a Cheerleader

Natasha Lyonne stars as Megan Bloomfield, a high school cheerleader whose parents send her to a residential in-patient conversion therapy camp to "cure" her lesbianism. At camp, Megan realizes that she is indeed a lesbian and, despite the "therapy", comes to embrace her sexuality. Rated R

January 30 Gen Silent

The documentary follows the lives of six LGBT seniors living in the Boston area who must choose if they will hide their sexuality in order to survive in the long-term health care system. It has been screened at numerous colleges and universities as well as in front of government agencies and healthcare organizations.

The LGBTQ+ Film series is a collaboration of the Cambridge LGBTQ+ Commission and the Cambridge Council on Aging. This will be an LGBTQ+ friendly space for us all to view and discuss movies with LGBTQ+ themes and content. Friends, family members, caretakes and allies alike are encouraged to participate. This ongoing program is for those age 60+ and will take place at 10:AM on the last Tuesday of each month (Except December) at the Cambridge Senior Center, 806 Massachusetts Avenue. For more information, please contact Phoebe Hallahan, phallahan@cambridgema.gov or call 617-349-9177. Programming Leader for the Cambridge LGBTQ+ Commission
